BITS AND PIECES

To the original Nasty Cracker.
Good Luck
Jeff Overholt

Rik,
you are a real worm!
but I love ya. I hope I have you in some of my classes. You really have a fantastic personality and I think you are great because you always keep me laughing. Stay funny and Good Luck
in all you do.

 Well I have known you practically all of my life. And I am glad that I did. And I hope to see more of you in future years and I wish the best for you in all that you do. Good-bye in the future
 Love

Rex,
 A really nice guy I met this year in Biology. You are very friendly.

September begins a new school year and with it comes confusion: like the bits and pieces of a puzzle before it is joined. As seasoned veterans, the Seniors are needed to lead Student Life at Waite High School. Athletic events provide the first opportunity to display pride in our school, whether as a participant or a cheering spectator. Activities play an important part in bringing together the pieces of the puzzle by uniting people with common interests. A major portion of the picture is Underclassmen whose participation help make these events successful. The Academic section is needed to give the students a firm background of knowledge from which they can work. The final fragment, the pride displayed by the Community's Interest, gives us the whole product, the school as one.

To Rex

If I could make that face I would look dumb. But it's funny
I think just like me
Stay sweet & my friend
Love
Elsa

1. The first couple is a young man and woman who are both seniors. They are both very popular and have many friends. They are both very smart and are always studying hard. They are both very kind and are always helping their friends. They are both very funny and are always making people laugh. They are both very beautiful and are always getting compliments. They are both very successful and are always achieving their goals. They are both very happy and are always smiling. They are both very loving and are always caring for each other. They are both very loyal and are always standing by each other. They are both very brave and are always taking risks. They are both very confident and are always believing in themselves. They are both very determined and are always working hard. They are both very disciplined and are always staying on track. They are both very organized and are always keeping things in order. They are both very clean and are always taking care of themselves. They are both very healthy and are always eating well. They are both very active and are always exercising. They are both very social and are always hanging out with their friends. They are both very outgoing and are always meeting new people. They are both very friendly and are always being nice to everyone. They are both very respectful and are always treating others with dignity. They are both very honest and are always telling the truth. They are both very honest and are always telling the truth. They are both very honest and are always telling the truth.

It is time . . . for what?

Time . . . and eternal document, providing a system too complicated to ever conquer.

Determining our very existence upon earth.

Time . . . was, is, and shall be.

Essentially a part of us, as we each rush for the final act of living before the future meets its end.

It is time for a self-discovery.

Time for uniting our ideas in a way favorable to us all.

Time for reaching out to touch a friend for all the world to see

Time for being your own — not another.

It is time to change.

It is the best time for happiness,

in meeting friends at places we often label our own

It is time for remembering when the days grew lonely;

It is time to be on your own;

It is time for becoming adults.

Time for leaving friends, parents, places

Time for making new experiences good

It will soon be time to make your own the best way it can be

Time is of no essence or use when wasted.

It is your greatest asset when used with wisdom and diligence

SENJORS it's your . . . time!

board of education

Frank Dick, Superintendent

Like a giant jigsaw puzzle, a school is made up of many pieces that interlock into a pattern with each piece being as important to the complete picture as any other piece. The school administration provides the framework into which the faculty, students, and staff combine to form Waite High School. Each of these must work together to interlock and bring about the total learning experience for which we are striving.

Looking toward the future . . .

As supplies of natural gas and oil continue to grow scarce, electricity will play an even larger role in meeting the expanding energy needs of our society. That's why Toledo Edison is developing new sources of energy, such as nuclear power, and planning ahead for the power needs of 1990 and beyond.

We're determined to meet this challenge and provide the best possible electric service for your generation and others that follow.

On behalf of the 1975-76 Warrior Staff and myself I would like to thank the following people for their help and effort in making this publication possible

Norfolk & Western Railway for the use of the excerpt of the poem, "I Am The Nation."

Mr. Beltz of Northwood Studios for his patience and his fine photography.

Mr. Bynum of Hunter Publishing Company for his concern and help to meet each deadline

The American Revolution Bicentennial Administration for their time and for the pictures they sent us.

The staff for their contribution to the book

And I would especially like to thank Mrs. Bellville and Miss Iwanoff for their support and encouragement they gave me
